The record shall show the account for which each such transaction was effected, the name and amount of securities, the unit and aggregate purchase or sale price (if any), the trade date, and the name or other designation of the person from whom purchased or received or to whom sold or delivered.

(b) Ledgers reflecting all asset, liability, income, expense and capital accounts.

(c) Ledgers (or other records) itemizing separately as to each cash and margin account of every customer and of the broker-dealer and partners thereof, all purchases, sales, receipts and deliveries of securities and commodities for the account and all other debits and credits to the account.

Orders entered pursuant to the exercise of discretionary power by the broker-dealer or any employee thereof, shall be so designated. Compliance with the requirements of the U.S. securities and exchange commission concerning preservation and microfilming of records, or other means of retention of records, is deemed compliance with this subsection.

(b) The customer account-related records in sub. (1) (a), (c), (f) to (m), (p), (r) and (s) may be separately maintained at a designated office permitted by the division, provided the records are immediately accessible to the designated supervisor.

The record may be retained by computer if a printed copy of the record can be prepared immediately upon request. In the event a record has been preserved for one year as required under this subsection, a microfilm copy may be substituted for the remainder of the required period.

(5) This section does not require a licensed broker-dealer to make and keep such records of transactions cleared for the licensee by another broker-dealer as are customarily made and kept by the clearing broker-dealer.

(6) A broker-dealer may utilize alternative records to satisfy the requirements in subs. (1) and (3) upon application to and approval by the division, provided that the alternative records provide equivalent information to that required by those subsections, and provided that the alternative records are preserved and accessible in conformance with subs. (2) and (4).

(7) The division may by order exempt any broker-dealer from all or part of the requirements of this section, either unconditionally or upon specified conditions, if by reason of the special nature of its business, the division finds the issuance of the order is necessary or appropriate in the public interest or for the protection of investors.

(b) and (c), each broker-dealer shall give or send to the customer a written confirmation, promptly after execution of, and before completion of, each transaction. The confirmation shall set forth the information prescribed in rule 10b-10 of the securities and exchange act of 1934 and whether the transaction was unsolicited.

(b) A broker-dealer engaged solely in the offer and sale of securities issued by open-end investment companies, face amount certificate companies or unit investment trusts registered under the investment company act of 1940 is not required to give or send a written confirmation under par. (a), provided that the issuer gives or sends a written confirmation directly to the customer for the transaction.

(c) A broker-dealer engaged solely in the offer and sale of interests in direct participation programs is not required to give or send a written confirmation under par. (a), provided that a customer subscribing to purchase an interest in a direct participation program is provided immediately upon subscription with a copy of the subscription agreement entered into and the issuer gives or sends a written confirmation directly to the customer for the transaction.

(2) Each broker-dealer shall establish and keep current a set of written supervisory procedures and a system for applying such procedures, which may be reasonably expected to prevent and detect any violations of ch. 551, Stats., and rules and orders thereunder. The procedures shall include the designation, by name or title, of a number of supervisory employees reasonable in relation to the number of its licensed agents, offices and transactions in this state. A complete set of the procedures and system for applying them shall be kept and maintained at every branch office.

(3) A broker-dealer shall not enter any contract with a customer if the contract contains any condition, stipulation or provision binding the customer to waive any rights under ch. 551, Stats., or any rule or order thereunder. Any such condition, stipulation or provision is void.

(4) No broker-dealer shall permit or effect a withdrawal of any part of its net worth, including subordinated indebtedness, whether by redemption, retirement, repurchase, repayment or otherwise, that would cause its net capital or its aggregate indebtedness to violate s. DFI-Sec 4.02 (1) or (2), without prior written approval of the division.

(5) Each broker-dealer shall provide each customer with a conformed copy of all contracts and agreements between the broker-dealer and the customer not later than 20 days after the customer's account is first established on the books and records of the broker-dealer. Each broker-dealer shall provide each customer with a conformed copy of the customer information form prescribed under s. DFI-Sec 4.03 (1) (k) or an alternative document that contains at a minimum the customer's name, address, net worth, annual income, investment objectives and any other information affecting the agent's ability to make suitable recommendations, not later than 20 days after the customer's account is first established on the books and records of the broker-dealer. Each contract or agreement and new account form for a customer whose account involves both an introducing broker and a clearing broker who provides services to the customer, shall contain or be accompanied by a disclosure of the identity and address of each broker-dealer. A copy of any material amendment to a customer's contract, agreement or customer information form shall be provided to the customer within 20 days from the date of the material amendment. In this subsection, a material amendment is presumed to exist, without limitation, in the event the broker-dealer receives from the customer and records on the customer information form, changes to the customer's annual income, net worth, investment objectives or other changes to information affecting the agent's ability to make suitable recommendations for the customer as required under s. DFI-Sec 4.06 (1) (c).

(7) Every broker-dealer whose principal office is located in this state, other than a broker-dealer engaged solely in the offer and sale of either interests in direct participation programs or securities issued by open-end investment companies, face amount certificate companies or unit investment trusts registered under the investment company act of 1940, shall have at least one licensed person employed on a full-time basis at its principal office.

(8) No broker-dealer may associate with a bank, savings institution, trust company, savings and loan association or credit union by contract, agreement or other means for the purpose of that entity publishing or circulating advertising promoting the services offered by the broker-dealer or assisting or providing information to persons to establish an account with the broker-dealer unless:

(9) No broker-dealer shall conduct broker-dealer services on the premises of a financial institution where retail deposits are taken unless the broker-dealer complies initially and continuously with all of the following requirements:

(a) The broker-dealer services shall be conducted, wherever practical, in a physical location distinct from the area in which the financial institution's retail deposits are taken. In all situations, the broker-dealer shall identify its services in a manner that clearly distinguishes those services from the financial institution's retail deposit-taking activities. The broker-dealer's name shall be clearly displayed in the area in which the broker-dealer conducts its broker-dealer services. Nothing in this paragraph prohibits the financial institution from carrying out other activities within the designated area, provided that no promotional signs or materials shall be displayed in the designated area other than those relating to the securities services.

(b) Networking and brokerage affiliate arrangements shall be governed by a written agreement that sets forth the responsibilities of the parties and the compensation arrangements. Networking and brokerage affiliate arrangements shall provide that supervisory personnel of the broker-dealer and representatives of state securities authorities, where authorized by state law, will be permitted access to the financial institution's premises where the broker-dealer conducts broker-dealer services in order to inspect the books and records and other relevant information maintained by the broker-dealer with respect to its broker-dealer services. The broker-dealer shall ensure that the networking and brokerage affiliate arrangement clearly outlines the duties and responsibilities of all parties. For purposes of this paragraph, "networking arrangement" and "brokerage affiliate arrangement" mean a contractual or other arrangement between a broker-dealer and a financial institution pursuant to which the broker-dealer conducts broker-dealer services on the premises of a financial institution where retail deposits are taken.

(d) If broker-dealer services include any written or oral representations concerning insurance coverage, other than FDIC or similar insurance coverage, then clear and accurate, written or oral explanations of the coverage shall also be provided to the customers when the representations are first made.

(e) Recommendations by a broker-dealer concerning any non-deposit investment product with a name similar to that of the financial institution shall occur only pursuant to a sales program designed to minimize the risk of customer confusion.

(f) All confirmations and account statements shall indicate clearly that the broker-dealer services are provided by the broker-dealer.

(g) Advertisements and sales literature that announce the location of a financial institution where broker-dealer services are provided by the broker-dealer, or that are distributed by the broker-dealer on the premises of a financial institution, shall disclose using the following language or using the shorter, logo format language in par. (g), provided that the disclosures are displayed in a conspicuous manner:

1. Not FDIC Insured.

2. No Bank Guarantee.

3. May Lose Value.

(i) Provided that the omission of the disclosures required by par.(g) would not cause the advertisement or sales literature to be misleading in light of the context in which the material is presented, the disclosures in par. (g) shall not be required with respect to messages contained in any of the following:

1. Radio broadcasts of 30 seconds or less.

2. Electronic signs, including billboard-type signs that are electronic, time, and temperature signs and ticker-tape signs, but excluding messages contained in media such as television, on-line computer services, or automated teller machines.

3. Signs, such as banners and posters, when used only as location indicators.

(j) The broker-dealer shall promptly notify the financial institution if any agent of the broker-dealer who is employed by the financial institution is terminated for cause by the broker-dealer.

(k) The broker-dealer shall establish written supervisory procedures and a system for applying the procedures. The procedures shall comply with sub. (2) and shall be designed to accomplish certain supervisory functions, including but not limited to the following:

1. Prevention and detection of violations of ch. 551, Stats., and any applicable rules and orders thereunder;

2. Establishment of a system under which the broker-dealer approves prior to use copies of all advertising used by the financial institution relating to the securities services conducted on the premises of the financial institution for the purpose of ensuring compliance with ss. 551.41 and 551.53, Stats.; and

3. The name and telephone number of a person representing the broker-dealer who may be contacted without expense to the customer to answer questions regarding items in subd. 2.; and
4. Any additional information necessary under the circumstances to clarify the information prescribed in this paragraph.

(b) The notification requirement under par. (a) is not applicable to the cessation of business at an office where the cessation is caused by illness or death of all licensed agents at that office, if the cessation of business at the office does not occur for a period exceeding 14 days.

(11) Each broker-dealer shall disclose in writing to customers at the time of opening an account, any custody fees, service fees, or maintenance fees that may be charged to the customer and the basis upon which the charges are determined. Customers shall receive written notice at least 45 days prior to the imposition of any new custody, service, maintenance or similar fees, or any changes to existing fees of that nature.
